Please note:

- We recommend booking your transfer in advance. Last-minute requests are subject to availability and may not be accommodated.
- Collective transfers operate on fixed schedules and may not be available every day. Services operate based on existing bookings.
- Collective transfer schedules may not match all flight times. If the available schedule does not match your flight, you may need to arrange a private transfer or public transportation at your own expense.
- Waiting time may be required upon arrival. As the service operates according to a fixed schedule, immediate departure from the airport cannot be guaranteed.
- The meeting point is the Club Med Counter located in the arrival terminal.
- The type of vehicle used, such as a bus or taxi, will be determined based on the number of guests.
- Child seats are not available for collective transfers.
- If you have booked a transfer, please update your flight details in your Customer Account at least 6 days before arrival. Without your flight details, we may not be able to secure your collective transfer service.
